

FOR WEST AFRICAN STUDENTS
WITH LEARNING CHALLENGES

FINALLY,

A SOLUTION AND AN OPPORTUNITY—

The Beacon COMPASS PROGRAM

a 4-week program of self discovery, academic exploration and TOEFL preparation

Monday, June 27 - Friday, July 22, 2016

For university-bound West African high school students and recent graduates with learning disabilities, ADHD or other learning differences.

The Beacon COMPASS Programme has been developed for talented and motivated students who aspire to attend university, but who struggle in traditional academic settings. It will expose students to a new way of looking at themselves, the learning experience, and the world around them.

Compass students will be accompanied by West African instructors and mentors and will serve as their chaperones at all times – travelling with them to Beacon, living in the campus residence hall and accompanying them to any off-campus activities.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This program features five core elements that will help students navigate the learning process and develop ways to achieve their academic potential.

- 1) THE FOUNDATION OF SELF DISCOVERY
- 2) ACADEMIC EXPLORATION
- 3) A PREVIEW OF CAMPUS LIFE
- 4) STUDYING IN THE U.S.A. – THE FLORIDA EXPERIENCE!
- 5) POST-PROGRAM FOLLOW UP
